Saheli, the Women’s cell of Garhbeta College in association with IQAC, Garhbeta College, organized a national level Webinar on 20th July, 2020 to understand how Covid-19 has inflicted injuries to the gender equality which is already fragile in a country like India. Through this national webinar the college took the initiative to make a large number of audiences understand how Covid-19 pandemic situation had generated immense psychological setbacks, particularly for women and also finds out the real-time curative measures for that. Dr. Hariprasad Sarkar, the Principal of the college, spoke about the position of women during the Covid period. He also gave a welcome speech. Dr. Prithwish Kumar Hait, Coordinator of IQAC, told that a tiny virus could not stop the progress of human civilization. Dr. Rita Sil, Joint Convenor of ‘Saheli’, Women’s Cell, gave details of Saheli’s journey. Dr. Ritajyoti Bandyopadhyay spoke about the history of the world’s epidemics. He also discussed the socio-political-economical context of the Covid period. Dr. Simantini Mukhopadhyay and Dr. Supurna Banerjee had attempts to understand the position of women on the basis of information obtained at that time. In this webinar, a counselling session was also arranged. Dr. Srabani Seal discussed the psychological problems of the covid period and its solutions. Dr. Rita Sil delivered vote of thanks. Principal of the college announced the end of the webinar. The entire programme was conducted by Dr. Rajlaxmi Mukherjee, Joint Convenor of ‘Saheli’. Many students, teachers and researchers from West Bengal as well as from outside of West Bengal participated actively in this program and made it a grand success.
