

Report on “Jam, Jelly, and Pickle making workshop”, organized by ‘Saheli’ on 14th March, 2023

‘Saheli’, the Women’s Cell, Garhbeta College has organized “Jam, Jelly, and Pickle making workshop” on 14th March, 2023 in the college premises to celebrate “International Women’s Day”. The program was inaugurated by Dr. Hariprasad Sarkar, Principal of the college. Agricultural Marketing Office (Training & Canning), Abash, Paschim Medinipur was invited for the training program. Mr. Indrajit Dendria (Agriculture Marketing Officer), Mrs. Jaya Das, and Mrs. Parvati Majhi gave training to the participants on how to prepare the Tomato Sause without using any harmful chemicals. ‘Saheli’ has a glorious history of organizing various workshops and training programs to enhance and support self-sustainment among the local society This hands-on training program will add one more feather in the cap of Garhbeta College as well as ‘Saheli’.

The workshop was attended by students of various disciplines, college staff, and members of Self-Help Group of Garhbeta locality. All participants have interacted with the trainers regarding preparation of Jam, Jelly, Squash, and Pickle without using any harmful chemicals; Agriculture Marketing Officer has addressed the issues and suggested various natural alternatives. Dr. Shantimoy Patra, and Prof. Soma Samanta, Teachers’ representative of Governing Body, Mr. Shyamal Bajpayee, Panchayet Pradhan of Block 11, Garhbeta and other faculty members were present during the entire session. The program was hosted by Prof. Tanushree Maity, faculty of B. Ped. and member of ‘Saheli’. Dr. Rajlaxmi Mukherjee, ex-convenor, and member of ‘Saheli’, has delivered a talk on the vision and mission of ‘Saheli’. Prof. Mousumi Pal, and Dr. Shampa Deb Chanda joint convenor of ‘Saheli’ along with other members actively organized the program. Overall, it was an interesting program with participants, especially the members of Self-Help Group will benefit through this training. They also have requested to organize such training program in future and ‘Saheli’ has assured to assist them in their goals. Each participant was given a Certificate of participation.

Picture Gallery

