An awareness camp was jointly organized by SAHELI, Women's cell And Coy 4 & 5, 53 Bengal Battalion NCC and in collaboration with the local schools of Garhbeta on Thursday, 14th September, 2023. The main topic of the camp was Cervical Hygiene and health issues faced by women. Incidentally, this is a part of the Student Awareness Program on behalf of the college. The camp held in the college was inaugurated by the honorable Principal of the college, Mr. Hariprasad Sarkar. The chief guest in the said awareness camp was famous Gynecologist Dr Manas Chakraborty. He emphasised in the absence of any nationwide cervical screening programme, cancer of cervix remains a major public health problem for India. We here assessed knowledge levels of female school and college students about cervical cancer and its risk factors. On behalf of the college, the teacher representatives of the governing body of the college, Dr. Shantimoy Patra and Prof. Soma Samanta, the Secretary of the Teacher's Council, Dr. Sajed Biswas and NCC Lieutenant Shukla Dubey Vajpayee were present in this programme. The teachers' representatives of Garhbeta Umadevi Girls' School, Garhbeta High School, Dhadika High School and Banerjidanga High School were present. The main intention of the said camp to promote awareness about the Cervical hygiene among the students of both school and college. The camp generated considerable interest among students from the college as well as the students of neighboring schools. The entire programme was managed by the members of SAHELI and the cadets of NCC. The workshop was attended by more than 120 pupils from the surrounding schools and areas of the college . They were naturally very happy to participate in this workshop organized by the college.
