Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) and 'Saheli', Women's Cell and National Service Scheme (NSS) of Garhbeta College jointly organized a free eye screening camp in the college on Tuesday 5th February, 2024 for the people from local community as well as for the students and the staff of the college. Incidentally, it is considered as a Community Outreach Initiative by the college. The camp was held in the college and received a huge response from the local community as well as from the staff and students of the college. Many of the local villagers were interested in eye examination in this camp. About 30 villagers got their eyes checked in this camp. Professors of various departments and students were present on behalf of the college. Total beneficiaries of this event were about 70 people including students, faculty, staff and people from local community. The camp generated considerable interest among all present. The entire programme was managed by ICC of the college and all members of 'Saheli', Women's Cell and four Programme Officers of NSS. Enthusiasm towards the camp was noticed among the students and volunteers of the National Service Scheme of the college present.
